Your insurance company _____ may only pay for services that it determines to be 'reasonable and necessary' and follows in the footsteps of Medicare under Section 1862(a)(1) of the Medicare Law. If the insurance company determines that a particular service, although it would otherwise be covered, is 'not reasonable and necessary' under their program standards, your insurance company may deny payment for that service, even if it has already paid McGlynn Chiropractic in the past.

In that case, you will be responsible for reimbursing this office for such services.

Please do not hesitate to speak with Jennifer if you have any questions or concerns about the above statements.

As always, McGlynn Chiropractic appreciates your efforts to maintain your health and wellness.
